FARGO has been named one of the most desirable places in the country to live by Money magazine. Located in the rich farmlands of the Red River Valley, the Fargo-Moorhead community (population 208,000+) has many qualities that contribute to this reputation, including highly-respected educational opportunities, advanced medical technology, a progressive business community, numerous cultural and arts opportunities, a clean environment and good-hearted, friendly people.

Fargo's revitalized downtown has gained recent national publicity through such media outlets as the Los Angeles Times, The Today Show, National Public Radio and MSN.com. To learn more about the community's quality of life, visit www.fmchamber.com.

The GRAND FORKS community offers an environment with the great amenities offered in larger urban areas, and the safety and convenience of a small community. Greater Grand Forks is an impressively cosmopolitan city, boasting a regional population of roughly 98,000 spanning two states.

Some of the features that make the community a great place to live are diverse educational opportunities, safety and low crime rate, parks and theaters, and a cost of living considerably lower than that found in large cities.
